TENNESSEE NEWS CUT TO THE QUICK FOR BUSY READERS

Twenty pipe-fitters of the Chat-anooga Gas Company struck for higher wages when the company refused their request for an increase.

Governor Rye called out the State Rangers to preserve order in the strike of 3,000 textile workers in 12 mills in Chattanooga. Union officials predicted a general sympathetic strike as a result.

Lon Smith, who is superintendent of a large farm for W. T. Burnett at Palmyra, Miss., while in Columbia bought ten head of mules and one mare, for which he paid $2,655, an average of $241.36 per head.

Food conservation and economy along all lines will be stressed at the summer school for colored teachers to be conducted at the Agricultural and Industrial State Normal School, beginning June 12 and lasting until July 15.

Thought to have been seized with cramps while bathing in McCallie Lake, near Chattanooga, Henry Mitchell, a 17-year-old lad, was drowned.
Efforts to revive him by means of artificial respiration were without avail.

Senator K. D. McKellar, of this state, is pronounced in his attitude with reference to taxation on liquor. He says if this government must depend upon the revenue derived from whisky to uphold it, "we ought to change our methods and subjects of taxation."

An attempt was made to wreck the train which took Major General Len-ard Wood from Chattanooga to Birmingham last week. Passengers on the train confirmed a report that a log was tied across the track about four miles south of Chattanooga.

L. Sawyer, negro, who in a desperate attempt to escape from the Shelby County jail, hung, while the officers were looking for him, by the tips of his fingers, seventy feet above a concrete floor, was acquitted by a jury in Memphis.

Crop conditions in Washington County at this time are fine, with sporadic rains falling at intervals of every two or three days. Indications are good for record-breaking potato crops, as well as for corn, spring oats and all kinds of vegetables.

The Junior Baraca class of the Central Baptist Church, Johnson City, has completed arrangements for the purchase of a Liberty bond. This class consists of small boys, thirty or more in number, ranging in age from 14 to 17 years.

Not one of the 560 men who at the State Penitentiary entered a claim of exemption from military service. All of them seemed to be keenly interested in the proceeding. Practically fifty per cent of the prisoners in the institution, it was found were between the draft ages.

Many things that were blown away from South Dyersburg during the cyclone are being found in different sections of the country. A road sign was found near Sardwell, Ky. An insurance policy belonging to Claude Blalock, of South Dyersburg, was found near the Kentucky line.

During the month of May the United States army recruiting officer, Maj.
Hughes, Nashville, has accepted and sent to Fort Oglethorpe, 151 recruits for the army. They are distributed as follows: Nashville 71, Clarksville 17, Columbia 18, Tullahoma 22, Cookeville 23.

The completion of interstate highways routed through Knoxville and East Tennessee, and the adjustment of finances to aid Union and Cocke Counties in the completion of unimproved roads is being urged by the recently reorganized Knoxville Automobile Club.

Many Chattanooga car owners have volunteered the use of their machines to "joy ride" convalescent students who have been confined to the hospital at the officers' training camp. Each day's hospital report shows a number of men disabled, but little trouble of a serious nature.

Students at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, have just organized for the purpose of getting work this summer and also at the opening of the fall session. About fifty students are available for work this summer, and most of these must earn a goodly sum during the next three months to insure their getting back.

Complaints coming from large manufacturing interests in Tennessee, charging that persons representing themselves as agents of the government are enticing their labor away, has caused Senator Shields to make a strong protest to the Department of Justice and request an immediate investigation.

The continued damp weather has enabled farmers to handle tobacco so as to get it down, finish stripping and deliver a considerable quantity, according to Clarksville dispatches.

Two persons were killed when five houses were destroyed by a tornado at Kerrville, near Memphis.

For every dollar paid to the Southern Railway Company by the people in the South during April, the Southern Railway Company paid out in the South $1.15, according to figures announced by Comptroller A. H. Plaut.

The contract for the by-products coke ovens at the plant of the Chat-anooga Gas and Coal Products Co., of New York, and the actual work on the ovens has begun. Over $500,000 will be expended on the new ovens.
They will have a capacity of 10,000 tons of coke per month and will produce 4,000,000 feet of gas.

The men of Friendship and community have decided to organize and drill at the school playgrounds under the leadership of those who have some knowledge of military tactics. All men from the age of 17 upwards have been invited to join and no physical examination is required. Dr. C. O.
Wilkes, former member of the State Guards, will assist in the drilling.

A cow-testing association will be organized in Knox County, the work to begin June 20. Organization will be under the supervision of County Agent Winegar and C. A. Hutton, dairy specialist. Not more than twenty-six members will be permitted to join the association, for the reason that the man who will be employed to test the cows each month cannot visit more than one herd each day, and he will be required to test each cow in each herd once each month.

John B. Maxwell, night ticket agent, Dyersburg, nearly lost his life in the yards of the Illinois Central Railway.
He had been checking some cars in the northern part of the yards, when he jumped on a fast freight to return to the depot. As he attempted to alight he slipped, his feet going under the car and he was horribly mangled.

Military Academy, has gone to Chicago to arrange for the summer campaign for the academy.
Richard Fitzgerald, for three years telegraph editor of the Knoxville Sentinel, has resigned to enlist in the U. of T. ambulance unit. He leaves immediately for a mobilization camp at Allentown, Pa. Other members of this unit will also be sent to Allentown within a few days. Members of the corps will be put through a short training course and then sent to the front in France.

As an answer to charges recently made in the wooden ships controversy that lumbermen are seeking to hold up the government, officers and members of the Hardwood Manufacturers' Association of the United States, in session in Memphis, agreed to furnish hard woods for the frames of 100 ships at a figure below cost. Memphis lumbermen agreed to pool among themselves 26 per cent of the order.

Announcement has been made in Washington that Capt. Allen J. Greer, Capt. W. N. Hughes, Jr. and Capt.
Fay W. Brabson had been detailed for duty with the general staff at Washington. Capt. Greer has been stationed in Nashville under orders from the War Department for some time as instructor inspector with the Tennessee National Guard and has also been active in the organization of the field artillery regiment which is now being formed in the State.

The next step following the registration of eligibles for service in the army will be the appointment of exemption officers. There will be two boards. The first will be county boards. The district boards, or appellate boards, to which appeals may be made, will be one board for each federal judicial district, or there may be more, at the discretion of the President. There is no compensation for service on either boards and the work will be laborious and exceedingly delicate. The law provides heavy penalties of fine and imprisonment for any favoritism.

Among the notable names of the students at Fort Oglethorpe officers' reserve training camp besides Leonard Wood, Jr., son of the commander of the department of the southeast, there is a Nicholas Roosevelt from Oyster Bay and there was a James Woodrow, but he has returned to Washington. Then there are three brothers, McDonald, Merriweather and Richard Lewis, of South Carolina, sons of E. D. Lewis, private secretary of Claude Kitchins, Democratic leader of the House, and nephews of Lieut. Col.
W. F. Lewis, formerly on Gen. Persh-ing's staff.

A resolution recently adopted by the Board of Education of Tipton County, to be inserted in all teachers' contracts follows: "That hereafter no teacher will be employed to teach in any public school of this county who attends public dances, or participates in such, and that this regulation shall constitute a part of the rules and regulations for the government of the public schools of this county, and is to be incorporated in the contract of those employed to teach in the public schools of the county. The county superintendent is directed before closing contracts with teachers to notify them of this regulation."

Company A, Confederate Veterans of Memphis, and Company B, of Nashville, carried off honors in the monster parade of Confederate Veterans in Washington. In command of Major Crump, fifty of the Memphians were in the line of march. After Company A came Company B, of Nashville, and the Tennessee Industrial School Band, clad in gray, playing a medley of martial airs beginning with Dixie. Then came the camps from the various sections of the State with the color-bearers carrying weather-beaten and reverenced Confederate flags, which have been carried proudly at every Confederate reunion thus far held.
